Patchwork Quilt Patterns

Dove in the Window

Thirty-five of these old-fashioned quilt patterns have already been published. The names of them are printed below. You may secure any or all of them that you may have missed by sending your name and address and 10 cents in coin or stamps for each pattern desired. The Free Press plans to hold a contest early in the fall at which quilts made from these patterns may be exhibited. One or more quilts may be entered by each person. Announcement of the prize offers, and details as to time and place will be made at least a month before the exhibition. If you wish further information call The Free Press, Randolph 3900, and ask for the Patchwork Quilt editor, Household Arts department.

DOVE in the Window is rather an intricate block to piece but a charming and unusual one when done. It finishes 14 inches square, suitable size for a patchwork pillow.

low. If you use it for a whole quilt set blocks together with four-inch strips of pieced sand and white with four-inch squares of sand color at all intersections.

As with the others in our patchwork series these patterns give exact size of finished parts. Trace these sizes on the wrong side of the cloth, then cut a seam longer sewing back to the line.

Another old-fashioned quilt design will appear on this page next Monday. Patterns that have been published in this series are Album

Suits and Blouses Are Leaders They Must Be Included in the Spring Wardrobe

BY LUCY PARK,
The Fashion Co-ordinator.

IT'S A suit year! Everyone who went over to Paris to the spring openings was impressed with the number of smart Frenchwomen wearing suits. And they were an important part will surely include one or more in her wardrobe.
