

Here's the Way to Procure Quilt and Recipe Leaflets

The first pattern for the beautiful Nancy Page Bouquet Garden quilt appeared in Sunday's issue of The Detroit Free Press. The next will be published on Feb. 7.

Those who have not ordered their direction leaflet should do so now. The leaflet will be sent free to any reader sending a stamped, addressed envelope to Nancy Page in care of the Free Press.

State Flower Quilt

The Woman's Department has a limited supply of most of the patterns in the famous State Flower quilt, which was printed last fall. Demands for odd patterns in this series are being received constantly and if your set is not complete it will pay you to write or call for the missing numbers now. Enclose stamped, addressed envelope and five cents for each pattern. Address your letter to the Patchwork Quilt Editor.

Old-Fashioned Pattern

Free Press quilt fans will be interested in checking this list of genuine old-fashioned quilt block patterns on sale in the Woman's Department, room 443, between 4 and 5. The selection is limited, so please give second and third choice in case your favorite is not available.

Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope and 5 cents for each pattern. Address your letter to Patchwork Quilt Editor, Woman's Department, Free Press.

Cooking Leaflets

Special this week are leaflets containing menus and recipes for business women who are making use of their kitchenettes for the first time. Simple menus and recipes for substantial dishes for two are planned so they are attractive and appetizing but save time and labor in preparation.

Directions for planning and cooking flavorful fuel-saving oven meals also are available.

To get either or both of these leaflets, address your request together with stamped addressed envelope to Woman's Department Service Bureau, Detroit Free Press
