Handsome Tiger Lily Has Place in Applique Quilt

Gay Flower Fills Fourth and Last Urn in Row Number Three of Garden Bouquet Design

A STATELY FLOWER is the tiger lily, which may be made in shades of yellow and black, or dull orange and black. The turned-back petals use a figured material, preferably a polka-dotted one. The outside of the flower is made in plain material.

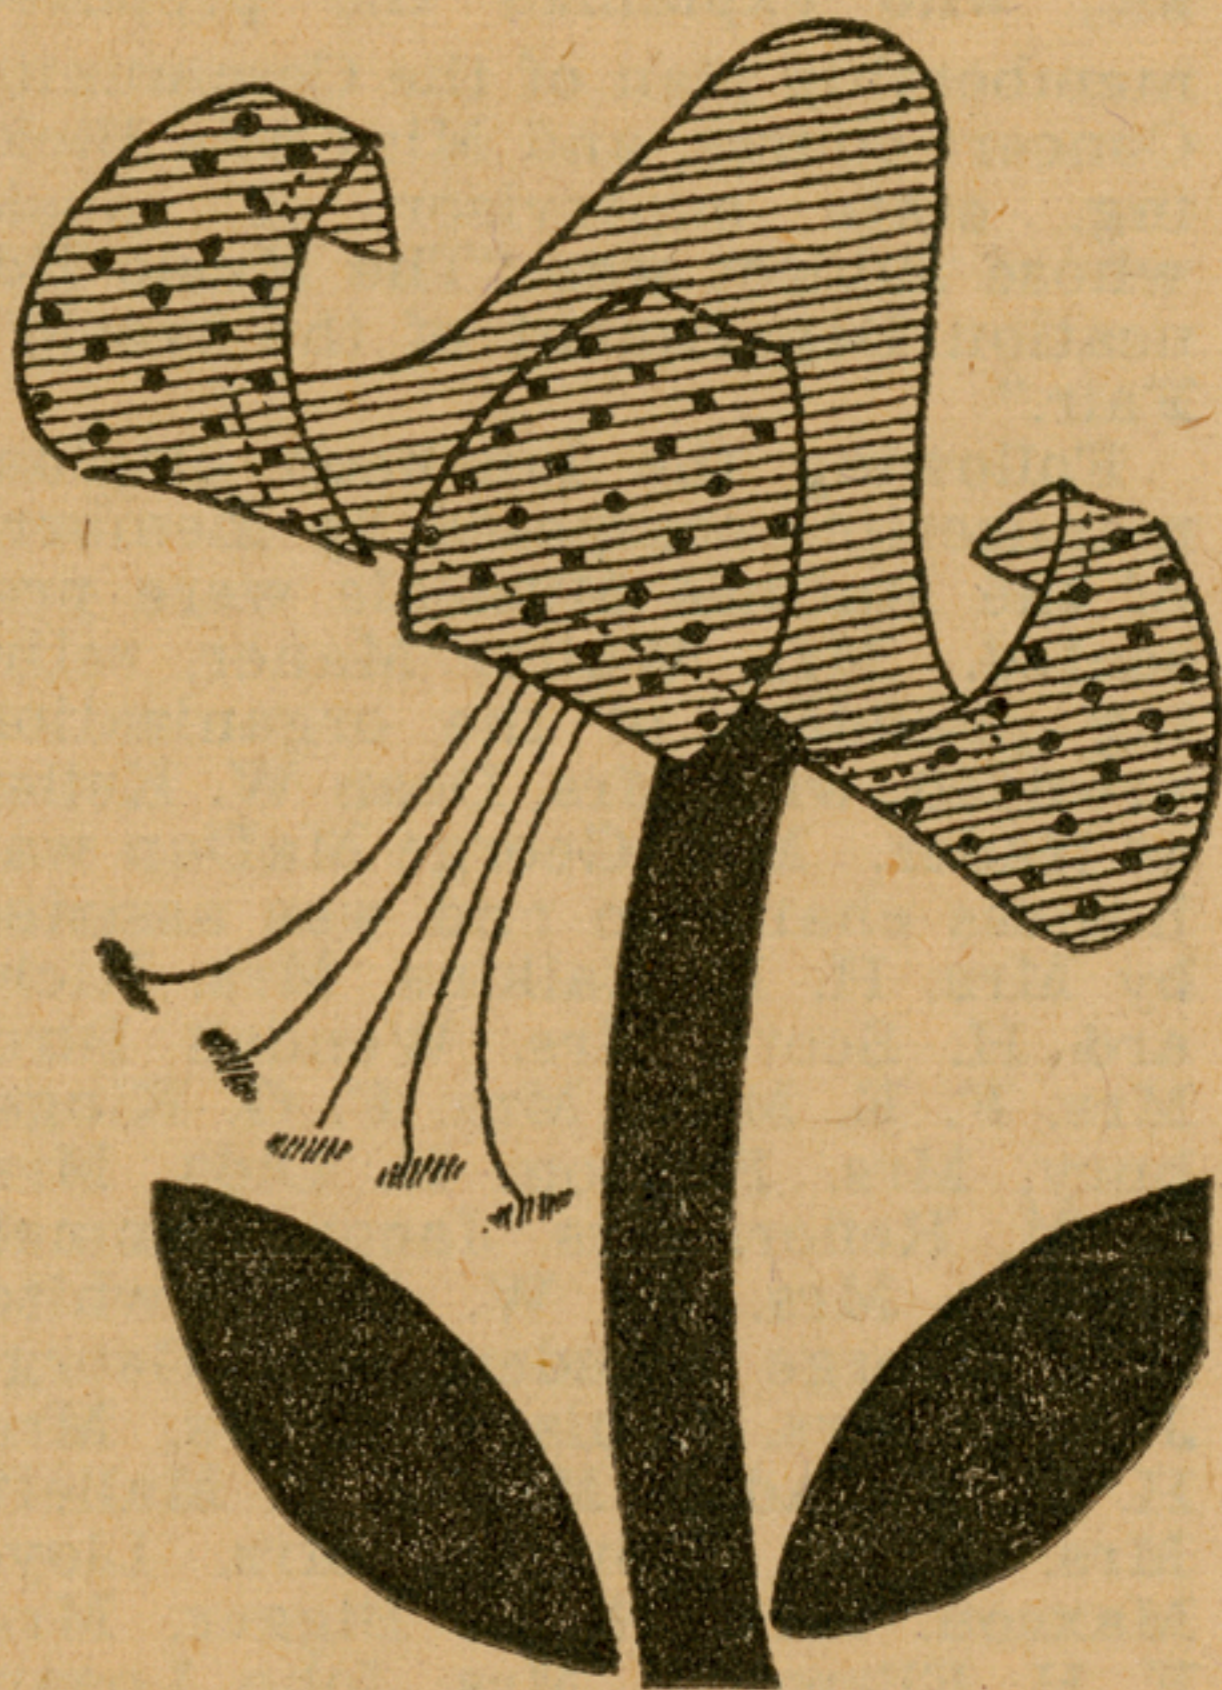

The full-sized pattern of the tiger lily will be mailed to you on receipt of your request and a two-cent stamp.

If you have already begun this quilt or are saving the patterns do not fail to send for the tiger lily pattern.

If you want to begin the Nancy Page quilt, and wish the back patterns, together with an instruction leaflet, all the back numbers will be mailed to you on receipt of your name and address and 20 cents, in coin or stamps. Single patterns are 5 cents each.

Those which have been printed are patterns for urn, saucy bird, meek bird, tulip, cactus, lily of the valley, wild rose, trillium, Canterbury bells, nasturtium, pansy, primrose, zinnia and phlox. The patterns for the urn and for each of the birds are used again and again, every time a quilt block is made.

Please do not send stamped envelopes. Your envelopes may be too small for the patterns.

In sending for the full-sized pattern of the tiger lily block, address Quilt Editor, Detroit Free Press. Write your name and address plainly and inclose a two-cent stamp—but not a stamped envelope.
