

Background Is Yellow in Gay 'Necktie Quilt'

By EDITH B. CRUMB

MISS MARY GATHERS, 1628 Church street, has just finished a quilt which she brought down to the Quilt Club meeting yesterday. She calls it the Necktie pattern and it certainly seems to be rightly named. Each block appears to have eight neckties and each is of a different color and pattern of print. The background is yellow, which is very attractive for this design.

After Miss Gathers finished the top she sent it to Mrs. Minnie Baldwin, a relative in Tuscola, Mich., who did all the quilting.

Miss Gathers is always sewing on a quilt, and by the time the next quilt show is held, she should have quite a stack to enter.

YESTERDAY'S sunshine brought a large crowd of quilters to the Cornerite meeting. Mrs. Hatty Breuhm, 8595 Olivet avenue, and Mrs. Emma Kirschke, 1242 Lawndale avenue, came to the meeting after being absent for a long time. They said that they had missed the good times and intend to come every Friday from now on.

A new member, Mrs. Bertha Miller, 5132 Lincoln avenue, came for the first time—thus celebrating her birthday, which was yesterday. Mrs. Marian Ridler brought a big box of candy as her birthday treat.

Mrs. Minnie Russell stopped in, just long enough to say "hello" and "goodbye" on her way to a trip to visit a few relatives in Ohio.

Mrs. Sylvia Carled, 1585 LeMay avenue is still ill and not able to attend. We surely missed her.

Mrs. Henry C. Reinhold reports that Mrs. Belle Hardy and her daughter, Mrs. V. Ricketts, gave a dinner at the home of the latter, 2610 Harding avenue, in honor of the members of the Henpeck Holler caste. All but Mrs. Rose Alexander, who is ill, were present.

A LETTER from Mrs. J. L. Hamburger, 11435 South St. Louis avenue, Chicago, says that her group of quilting friends are making big plans for the next quilt show. She is just finishing a quilt with 16,000 pieces in it, requiring 2,000 yards of thread in the quilting.

Mrs. Chas. E. Jones, 1629 24th street, has started her first pair of socks for the British War-Relief

Society and expects to get as far as the heel by next Friday.
