quarter inch squares in ivory on the diagonal. The floor covering is light and I am sorry to say it cannot be changed.

The stove is white with a little black trim and there is a jade green electric iron which folds into a table.

I thought I would like to have the walls and woodwork painted all the same in a very delicate tint of yellow. What color would you suggest for the cupboards inside? Should I border the line around the panels of the cupboard doors in black or orange, or have any other trimming on the woodwork?

What color would be attractive for the breakfast set? My canister set is green but am willing to change this and also the curtains if necessary.

MRS. W. R.

Yes, yellow would be just the right tint for the walls, woodwork and jade green and white checked linen tablecloths would be just right for your breakfast nook. They are very inexpensive and practical.

W. I. L. to Greet Envoy of Peace

Mrs. Mildred Scott Olmsted, "disarmament envoy" sent out by the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, will be entertained in Detroit Saturday and Sunday, by Michigan Branch of W. I. L. The envoys sent out by the league to all parts of the country are endeavoring to revive support for the Disarmament Conference and to make evident to President Roosevelt their hope that he will speed the cause of disarmament.

Detroit women, members of the league, who will greet Mrs. Olmsted on her arrival include Mrs. Kathleen McGraw Hendrie, member of the national board; Miss Jessie Miller, Michigan State chairman; Miss Caroline Parker, Mrs. Webster M. Prince, Miss Elizabeth Hincks, Mrs. Raymond M. Anderson, Miss Edith Kimball, Miss Mabel Conant, Miss Lois Rankin, Mrs. Homer Safford, Mrs. I. Bayre Levin, Mrs. Charles Green and Miss Julia Van Arsdale.

Petitions which have been circulated previously in Michigan will be presented to Mrs. Olmsted at a luncheon Saturday noon, at Lucy Thurman Y. W. C. A. These petitions which have been gathered from all parts of the country, will be taken to Washington, May 20, immediately following Good Will Day, to be presented to President Roosevelt, with Miss Jane Addams as spokesman.

Mrs. Olmsted will speak at the luncheon Saturday, on "What More Can Women Do for Peace?" Her address will immediately follow a cafeteria luncheon at 12:30. The public is welcome.

Trip Around World Quilt Design Ready

WELL, it is all ready and waiting for you—the "Trip Around the World" quilt pattern, and I know that you have been watching for it this week and hoping to see an announcement of it.

Why not be among the first to receive the pattern? Once you have it and begin to look it over you will want to start right in to make it, and I feel certain that you will find it one of the most fascinating quilts you have ever seen or made.

To receive this reprint from The Detroit News all you have to do is to send your request for it, accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope to The Beauty in the Home Department, The Detroit News.

If you prefer, you may call for this at The Detroit News Public Service Bureau in either the Majestic Building or the General Motors Building, where it will be given you free of charge.

Be sure to write in and tell the Corner how you like this pattern.
