Trip Around World Quilt Design Ready

WELL, it is all ready and waiting for you—the "Trip Around the World" quilt pattern, and I know that you have been watching for it this week and hoping to see an announcement of it.

Why not be among the first to receive the pattern? Once you have it and begin to look it over you will want to start right in to make it, and I feel certain that you will find it one of the most fascinating quilts you have ever seen or made.

To receive this reprint from The Detroit News all you have to do is to send your request for it, accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope to The Beauty in the Home Department, The Detroit News.

If you prefer, you may call for this at The Detroit News Public Service Bureau in either the Majestic Building or the General Motors Building, where it will be given you free of charge.

Be sure to write in and tell the Corner how you like this pattern.

one who has seen it so far has been very enthusiastic about it.

I HEARD you on the radio this morning and enjoyed the program immensely. I listen every Wednesday. I have finished the "Dresden Plate" top. Does this make me eligible to join the club?
I received my Wonder Package and think it is wonderful.

Quilt Club Corner Changes Radio Time

WOULD you like to have letters to the Quilt Club Corner read over the radio? If so, write immediately so that they may be here in time for the broadcast which is at 10:30 every Wednesday over WWJ. Listen in for of the week. But later to make it a bit more convenient, the upper drawer was divided and it is this

A chest of drawers with its framed over-mirror, quaint little rocker with foot-stool to match and a barrel Windsor which is upholstered with a view to ease and comfort—a rare thing in the olden times and lamps with candlewick trimmed shades, all add to the charm of the room.

The small dressing table with toilet mirror and Windsor bench are evidence that vanity is not a twentieth century idea; and this little grouping is as appropriate for the girl's room of today as it was in the middle of the eighteenth century.

It is interesting to note with what honesty these pieces have been made for even the worn corners are prominent in the reproductions and the pegged construction which was such an important method when chairs, tables and chests were built to withstand hard usage is also included.

The Barnstable chair, Falmouth and Plymouth pieces will be a delight to those familiar with New England in general and Cape Cod in particular and to those who are not they will be an inducement to furnish a room or a house in this manner, for who can deny its charm? This is the opening week for this quaint little house.

me a spread made from that pattern so will attempt one from "The Trip Around the World" pattern. I should like to send mother the pattern also if you can spare one for her.
