I'm one of your first members and love the Quilt Club Corner.

MRS. E. H.

Oh, Mrs. H., that leaflet was not to show the width of the whole quilt or even the arrangement of the blocks as far as the order of the zodiacs were concerned but just to show how they were joined with the nine-patches and strips. Every body was getting so anxious and asking so many questions that I put that leaflet out so that there would be more of an idea of the general layout of the quilt.

I am so glad you like the Wonder Package. I know you will find a great many uses for it.

As to whether one should have glass curtains or not during the summer there is no rigid rule; but rest went as it seemed too narrow and too long (two blocks in width) so I ripped it apart and put three in a width and now I'm all ready to proceed.

I stopped at the General Motors Building and got a Wonder Package and it certainly is a bargain. The designs are countless. I am going to
