HOROSCOPE QUILT—PATTERN NO. 38

By EDITH B. CRUMB.

AND here is your last zodiac sign for the border of your Horoscope quilt, and, no doubt, you are somewhat glad to see this quilt nearing completion although it has really been a very fascinating one. Don't you think so?

Pisces folks are flexible. You must make up your mind whether to swim up a stream or down. You have the choice and need to choose wisely.

If you would like to know what designs to repeat on this border in case you wish to use 14—for you only have 12 to work with, you should have a harmonizing one and this is the order in which they are classed. First, Scorpio; next, Cancer, then Taurus, then Capricorn and lastly Virgo.

The best color for the Pisces person is purple or blue. Perhaps these are supposed to represent the color in the depths of the sea.

The gem for the month is the bloodstone. The favorite flower is the violet and Thursday is supposed to be the best day of the week for you to get things done acceptable.

Now that we have lifted all the lore connected with this sign let's consider, for a moment, the traits of this person.

She has the ability to see two sides of a question, has a poetic nature and an ability to furnish inspiration to less fortunate and far-seeing folk.

She is fascinated with music, art and the beauties of nature. She is inclined to be indolent, melancholy and somewhat easy going. She is not looking for dishonesty in others and so is often taken in by unscrupulous folks. She needs a steady hand to guide her in business affairs.

Next week we start on the quilting designs, so get ready for the study of the planets and more practically, the methods of doing the stretching, interlining and the quilting.
