Mrs. Meyer, you remember, is the fashion historian who presented that interesting "Famous Brides of History" show in Detroit last summer. If you haven't already met her you have a treat in store for you. She's such a delightfully dynamic person and her conversation is so full of interesting tidbits about great people.

She worked with Elsa Maxwell on the gowns for the Crepe Paper Ball given last year in New York at the Waldorf-Astoria by Lady Ribblesdale and Mrs. Vincent Astor. She's done costumes for "biggies" of two continents, including one for King Edward VIII.

This showing was first presented as part of the pageant at the Velvet Ball held at the Waldorf-Astoria Oct. 20.

TIERED SATIN

In speaking of this collection Mrs. Meyer said, "Lou Hoover owes me a vote of thanks for showing that her dress isn't nearly as bad as humor has had it." She indicated the lime green tiered satin that Mrs. Hoover wore in 1928, then pointed to another dress, "Now THAT one, to my notion, is much WORSE."

We can't tell you at which dress she pointed but when you see the exhibit you'll probably guess.

These gowns will be on display all week and Mrs. Meyer will tell you about them at the fashion show luncheon Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock at the Book-Cadillac Casino.

NOV. 18

If Nov. 18 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:35 to 11:35 a. m., from 2:35 to 4:35 p. m. and from 8:35 to 10:35 p. m. The danger periods are from 7:35 to 9:35 a. m., from 4:35 to 6:35 p. m. and from 10:35 p. m. until midnight.

If a woman and Nov. 18 is your birthday, be careful you do not get into a habit of fault-finding, for it can make you quite miserable. Unless you watch out you are liable to get a distorted viewpoint of some important subject this day.

Retribution possibly will be swift in cases where injustice has been deliberately practiced, so be fair in all your social and business transactions.

Do not let business make you a slave, because it will not pay. As an artist, musician, singer, teacher, business woman, author or broker your chances for making money are excellent.

Your future domestic life seems filled with happiness.

The child born on Nov. 18 usually in early youth, gives evidence of some unsuspected talent which ought to be developed. Dame Fortune appears to be willing to shower many gifts upon this youngster.

If a man and Nov. 18 is your natal day, ambition, combined with high ideals perhaps will win you an enviable position in the very near future.

Medicine, law manufacturing, acting, preaching, writing and selling may enable you to become a very rich man.

Quilt Shows to Be Held by Members of Two Clubs

By EDITH B. CRUMB

THE officers of the Sunshine Club will sponsor a bridge party and quilt show combined on Wednesday, Nov. 18, to be held at the Michigan Mutual Liability building, 183 Madison ave.

This will be open in the afternoon and continue through the evening.

Members of the club and their friends are invited to enter quilts and prizes will be given to owners of the best quilts in the different classes, including those which are antique.

The Sunshine Club is a charitable organization and the proceeds from this show and card party will be put to good use.

Lincoln Park Show

The members of the Unique Circle of the First Methodist Church in Lincoln Park will hold a quilt show on Thursday, Nov. 19, opening at 1 p. m.

Those who attended last year's show will remember that it was such a success that Mrs. Vera M. Merks, chairman, has promised an even bigger and better show this year.

Henderson Church Show

When the members of the Ladies Bible Class of Henderson Memorial Church (Lilac at Puritan) planned the quilt show which took place last Tuesday they didn't realized that it would be such a success it would be voted an annual affair.

But that is just what happened. The walls were lined with quilts and the platform fairly sagged with antiques, including beautiful old hand wrought silver from the Netherlands.

Mrs. Clarence Wright won the Miss Crumb holds a consultation period each Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for discussion of home decoration problems, and meets The News Quilt Club each Friday afternoon from 1 to 4 p. m. Both meetings are in the new WWJ studio building of The Detroit News. No admission tickets are necessary.

prize in the quilt exhibit and Mrs. Victor Pearson in the antique section, for her miniature music box of hand engraved silver.

A surprise kitchen shower was added to the afternoon's activities. This was given for Mrs. Roy Heavenridge who is moving to Garden City. We feel sure that Mrs. Heavenridge has not really said good-bye for she has too many true friends in her Henderson Church congregation not to pay many visits to them.

Pontiac M. E. Church

The gymnasium of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Pontiac was selected as the place for a quilt show given last Thursday by the members of the Indian Village Circle of that church. It is a good thing they selected a large room for they had over 50 quilts in the exhibit.

The chairman of the show, Mrs. W. S. Newman, was assisted by Mrs. E. W. Brown, Mrs. E. D. Firth and Mrs. T. E. Stalter; while Mrs. Leona McCloud, home demonstration agent of Oakland County was the judge.

The prizes were awarded as follows: For finished pieced quilts, first, Mrs. George Hamilton; second, Mrs. Gladys E. Mortense Mrs. Clarence Conlan.

Finished appliqued quilt Mrs. William Dawson; sec A. Nemej.

Tops, first, Mrs. James second, Mrs. E. Kelly; thir B. Saum.
