Activities of Members Vary at Quilt Meetings

By EDITH B. CRUMB

ALL any one who wants ideas on knitting, crocheting, tatting or quilt-making has to do is to visit The Detroit News Quilt Club Corner meetings on Friday afternoon, for every member is busy doing some- thing very interesting.

Mrs. Pearl Rhoads is making a child's quilt. It is made from the center part of the Lenox Plate pat- tern. The blocks are about eight inches square.

Mrs. Katherine Mierau is making a quilt with a different gingham Scottie applique on each block. Mrs. Henry C. Reinhold was binding a quilt which she had just finished from samples of shirting.

Mrs. Maude S. Raymond is learn- ing to tat, but still thinks crocheting is more fun. Mrs. Florence De Young, 1419 Vermont avenue, who joined yesterday, made several inches of crocheted edging with the help of Mrs. Emma Miller.

WE MISSED Mrs. A. Klein, 5326 Bewick avenue, who has not been with us for several weeks because of a fall. Mrs. Rose Alex- ander sent greetings to every one and is looking forward to the time when she can be with us again.

A crocheted rug kept Mrs. Wm. Kessler busy all afternoon. It was oblong and very attractive. The col- ors were hit-and-miss and she used a large wooden hook, being very careful to have all edges turned in so that there were no threads to ravel. This gave both sides a smooth, finished effect.

Mrs. Margaret Chenchick, 3730 Burns avenue, joined the Club yes- terday. Mrs. Ida Manning and Mrs. Jessie Indish who had heard about the Club and wanted to know more about it, came to visit. We hope that they liked it well enough to come again and bring their sewing.

A LETTER from Mrs. C. Foye, 19179 Cardoni avenue, Detroit, says that though she is not listed as a member of our Quilt Club she is a steady reader of the Corner. She is unable to attend meetings but wonders if some of the members might have a suggestion for pat- terns which she could use to make a quilt of heavy wool pieces. She wants something besides the old "Crazy Quilt" pattern.

She would also like suggestions for recovering and quilting an old feather comforter. She says she does not know much about quilts but is an ardent fan and is learning fast.

Mrs. Phillip Skuszinski, 19538 Waltham avenue, Detroit, would like to have patterns for the last three blocks of the Nosegay quilt. Is there anyone who would be generous enough to lend these to Mrs. Skus- zinski? If so, just drop them in an envelope and mail them to her.
