

quilt and she went home happy with it. She is going to use it as a spread for she says that she wants it where she can see it—that she would never enjoy it if it were tucked away in a trunk.

May is right. Quilts should be enjoyed, not just put away and saved. If they are of good material they should launder successfully, and any quilt which is not made of good material is not worth the time one spends in making it.

* * *

IN spite of the weather yesterday there was a large attendance at the Quilt Club Corner meeting. Mrs. Rose Alexander came as she had promised. We had looked forward for two weeks to having her back in the circle again.

Mrs. Emily Fretch came from Roseville and Mrs. Alice Yearley brought a new member (her sister-in-law), Mrs. William Clarkson, 2519 Hurlbut avenue.

Miss Mary Gathers brought a quilt top to show to us. It was a Double Irish Chain in royal blue, white and a print with a small floral design. Now she plans to make a Single Irish Chain quilt.

Mrs. B. N. Moore has a clever idea. She uses a block of her Seven Stars quilt for a pillow top. She suggests putting a colored ruffle (about an inch and a half or two inches wide) all

Box 101, Beaverton, Mich.

April 23—Mrs. Dorothy Erb, 6335 Van Dyke ave., Detroit; Mrs. Evalyn Mitchell, 722 Lansing ave., Detroit; Mrs. Wm. Kirschbaum, 9310 St. Cyril ave., Detroit; Miss Marie Hopkins, 12815 Elmdale ave., Detroit; Virginia Fowler, 2922 Miami road, South Bend, Ind. (15 years old); Mrs. Charles Ashton, 297 Buena Vista ave., Highland Park; Mrs. Jennie Alyea, 706 E. Exchange st., Owosso, Mich.; Mrs. Jennie Demetros, 7386 Merkel ave., Detroit, and Mrs. Hermine Baeceroot, 5217 Garland ave., Detroit.

April 24—Mrs. Percy Colewood, 18468 Dalby ave., Detroit.

April 25—Mrs. Oveda Gilton, 13322 Wilfred ave., Detroit; Mrs. Edna Quinn, 170 E. Dakota ave., Detroit; Mrs. Hazel Reid, 19157 Wakenden ave., Redford, Mich.; Mrs. Rosella Amoe, 15051 Da Costa ave., Detroit, and Mrs. F. W. Smith, 14779 Woodmont rd., Detroit.

April 26—Mrs. Robert Slinger, Crawford st., New Boston, Mich.

Highland Park

Alpha Chapter of Highland Park Woman's Club will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. with Mrs. Grace Pressley, 5951 Yorkshire road. Annual reports will be heard. Mrs. Helen Rall is chairman for the program, assisted by Lottie Cecil and Helen Jackson.

Friendship Quilt Completed

MAY MANCUSE (left) and her friend, ANTOINETTE SUTRIANO, are having fun looking for the names of May's friends on this quilt, which was made with the help of about 100 quilters. It was started last August and taken off the frames last week.