

Wardrobes for Dolls

Keep Cornerites Busy

By EDITH B. CRUMB

YESTERDAY at the Quilt Club Corner meeting everybody was interested in looking at the things brought for the Nancy's Belle's bazar.

Mrs. Sylvia Carlen had a baby quilt, Mrs. Gabrielle Baecheroot had several mysterious packages when she arrived and Mrs. Elizabeth Wirth had a very beautiful pair of pillow slips with white laced edged in blue for the trimming.

Mrs. Daniel Korb, Jr., and her daughter, Mrs. Fletcher Armstrong, came with two boxes of doll clothes. In one were nine doll dresses, nine sets of underwear and six house coats for 22 and 24-inch dolls.

Mrs. Korb made a doll's wardrobe for her mother, Mrs. Mary Conroy, to donate to the bazar. The wardrobe includes coat, hat, dress, slip, underwear, night dress, house coat and an everyday dress.

MR.S. ARMSTRONG was Edna Marie Kennedy, who won a prize in the little girl's section of the first Detroit News quilt show at the age of 12. She still makes quilts and will probably have two or three for our next show.

Mrs. Maude Moore and Mrs. Jadies Wilde, both members of the Julia Meade James Tent of the Daughters of the Union Veterans of the Civil War, Highland Park Chapter, came to show us a quilt which they had made to earn money for the organization. It was a lime green and white Double Irish Chain and very beautifully made.

THE new members who joined yesterday were Mrs. Jenny Torres, 5439 Baldwin avenue, Detroit, and Mrs. Elizabeth Flumano, 5439 Baldwin avenue, Detroit, both friends of Mrs. John Seger; Mrs. Viola Wilkinson, 959 Stimson Place, Detroit; Mrs. Maude Moore, 1702 Fullerton avenue, Detroit, and Mrs. Zadie Wilde, 10157 Beechdale avenue, Detroit.

Mrs. Florence Garvey is on the last block of her appliqued quilt of Paisley print on egg shell. She has just moved into a new home and has a big room in the basement where she keeps a quilt on the frames all the time.

Miss Mary Gathers has just finished a quilt of blue and many colored prints in what she calls a Globe design. Blue globes are surrounded by pieces like those used for the Necktie quilt. The back is plain blue.
