

Our Forces 'An Army of Love'

Gypsy's Home Town

of you as just a whoop and half a holler up the road! I'd like to think that the Happy Poppa's Mrs. Napoleon, Ruth of Blue Castle, Royal Hill and Lance, and dozen's more were our neighbors — wouldn't it be a nice neighborhood?

The Column-Folk and their joys and sorrows are always close to my heart. I always get a very happy thrill when Monday's Column has a message for me, and I know I am still one of you.

So, Flame come back and tell me that you are not discovered—and if you are, ever, don't feel too bad about it. I was "discovered" by a few folk who know me well, some time ago. I felt queer at first, but now I realize that it is something that no one need blush for.

Well, Nancy, and you, my friends out there. "Ty" has just started his street program and I've had no lunch!

So 'bye for now—with love to all—from

COLORADO GYPSY.

Still one of us? Now, Colorado Gypsy, you know you are! You could not get away from us even if you wanted to. And I am glad you do not want to.

I am glad, too, that you have decided that being "discovered" need not prevent your writing to the Column. Indeed it is something that "no one need blush for." Column thoughts and Column affairs are always interesting to Column folks.

It is nice to have folks we like "just a whoop and half a holler up the road." Expressive expression!

Quilt Club Birthdays

October 30—Mrs. Charlotte Bullon, 14841 Maple Ridge; Mrs. Mina Schulthels, 501 East Sibley street, Howell; Mrs. C. E. Grist, 8160 Chalfonte.

October 31—Mrs. Margaret Storey, 245 E. Buena Vista; Jane Wisner, 11671 Mansfield; Mrs. P. Foran, 1312 Clcotte street, Lincoln Park; Mrs. Grace Parker, 5057 Allendale; Mrs. Ilde M. Weinhold, 12272 Littlefield; Mrs. Beulah Bauman, 14244 Chelsea; Mrs. L. N. MacDougall, 14251 Longview avenue.

November 1—Mrs. Mary A. Pebley, 2400 West Grand Blvd.; Miss Edith Duncan, R. No. 2, Willis; Mrs. John Seewald, Jr., 2720 W. Jefferson, Trenton; Mrs. Jack Lefeovre, 13167 Cloverlawn.

November 2—Mrs. Lena Nelson, Breedsville; Mrs. Frances Crocker, 12100 Telegraph Road; Mrs. R. L. Chambers, 112 E. Tifritt street, Halls, Tenn.; Mrs. Ethel Mannahan, 209 E. Chestnut street, Canton, Ill.

November 3—Mrs. Ethel George, 26605 Jembrook Road, RFD No. 3, Box 1665, Redford; Mrs. C. E. Carson, R. No. 1, Box 304, Richmond, Mich.; Mrs. Mary Lakin, 1600 St. Clair.

November 4—Mrs. Mary Fradel, 4233 Belvedere; Mrs. Leo Brooks, 229 Johnson street, E., Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

November 5—Mrs. L. Stenzel, R. No. 5, Kalamazoo; Mrs. Nora Hale, 1631 LaMay avenue; Mrs. Bertha M. Schaaf, Harrison; Mrs. Wm. Freiermuth, 4814 Brooklyn; Mrs. George P. Hildner, 7813 Burnett.

decided they would be a burden and a hindrance during the first years of our marriage. We don't want to be tied down, and be cheated of our fun. Another thing . . . we figured children would be expensive, and deprive us of a great many necessities. We decided to

Glitter for Di

