

Members Gather Weekly

By EDITH B. CRUMB

MRS. FLORENCE MCGINNIES, 3544 Gladwin avenue, brought a sult-case to the Quilt Club Corner meeting yesterday, and it was filled to the point of bursting with new quilts.

She is shown with two of them in the accompanying picture. The one on the left is made from the Rob Peter to Pay Paul pattern, and the one at the right is the Nine-Patch.

This latter was made by the members of the Star Quilt Club, which meets every Thursday at the Bradley Recreation Center, Concord and Mack avenues. The quilters meet at 10 a. m. and stay until 3 p. m. They bring their own lunch.

Everyone has a chance to put her quilt on the frames and right now there are two under way. Most of the members are also members of the Detroit News Quilt Club. They are: Mrs. Maude Marx, Mrs. Eleanor Rein-

Home Institute Calendar

Homemakers Conference, Tuesday, 2 p. m.—Music by Ford Trade School Band, I. J. Petovello, director; solos by Walter Boyko, violinist, and Betty Ritzzenhein, pianist; dance recital by students of Wadsworth Studio; Tony Martin, singing star of screen and radio fame, to be interviewed by Herschell Hart, author of The News "Revelry by Night" column; Jean McBride, director of The News Test Kitchen, talking on "Gifts from the Kitchen."

Green Lights, Wednesday, 8 p. m.—Music by the Detroit WPA Dance Orchestra, Maurie Baker, conductor; B. L. Pickens, assistant professor of art at Wayne University, talking on the arts; trumpet trio, John Motl, Harry Begian and Joseph Petovello, of Ford Trade School Band; fencing demonstration by Bela and Joanna deTuscan.

Programs are to be held in the Auditorium Studio of WWJ-The Detroit News. Tickets are available without charge at The News, at branch offices in the General Motors and Majestic buildings, or may be reserved by calling Randolph 2000, line 297.

hold, Mrs. Marian Ridler, Mrs. Nellie Welke, Mrs. Hildred Hjerpe, Mrs. Eva Schaub, Mrs. Mary Jones, Mrs. Anne Tresnan, Mrs. Nellie Brichta, Mrs. Alice Yeardley, Mrs. Elise Kansler and Mrs. Lea Fletcher.

This week's meeting was a celebration for Mrs. Nellie Brichta, who brought two cakes for her birthday party.

THREE new members joined the Quilt Club yesterday—Mrs. Helen Perkins, 3964 Porter street; Mrs. Anne Tresnan, 2994 Sheridan avenue, and Mrs. Maude Arnold, 8042 John R. street. All seemed to get acquainted with the other members and we hope that they will come to the meeting every week.

Mrs. Bertha Weiss, 9991 Strathmoor came to the meeting after a long absence because of illness. It stemed like old times to have her with us again.

Mrs. Minnie Russell was also with us again yesterday.

Cornerites' Birthdays

December 4—Mrs. A. E. May, 6242 Hussar street; Mrs. Arthur Cullins, 21505 Goddard Road, Route 1, Dearborn; Mrs. Louise Harder, 4308 Bingham avenue, Dearborn; Mrs. Maude Moore, 1702 Fullerton avenue; Mrs. Leo Hart, R. No. 2, Farmington.

December 5—Mrs. Carrie Young, Sears, Mich.; Mrs. Minnie Gray, 3415 Seyburn avenue.

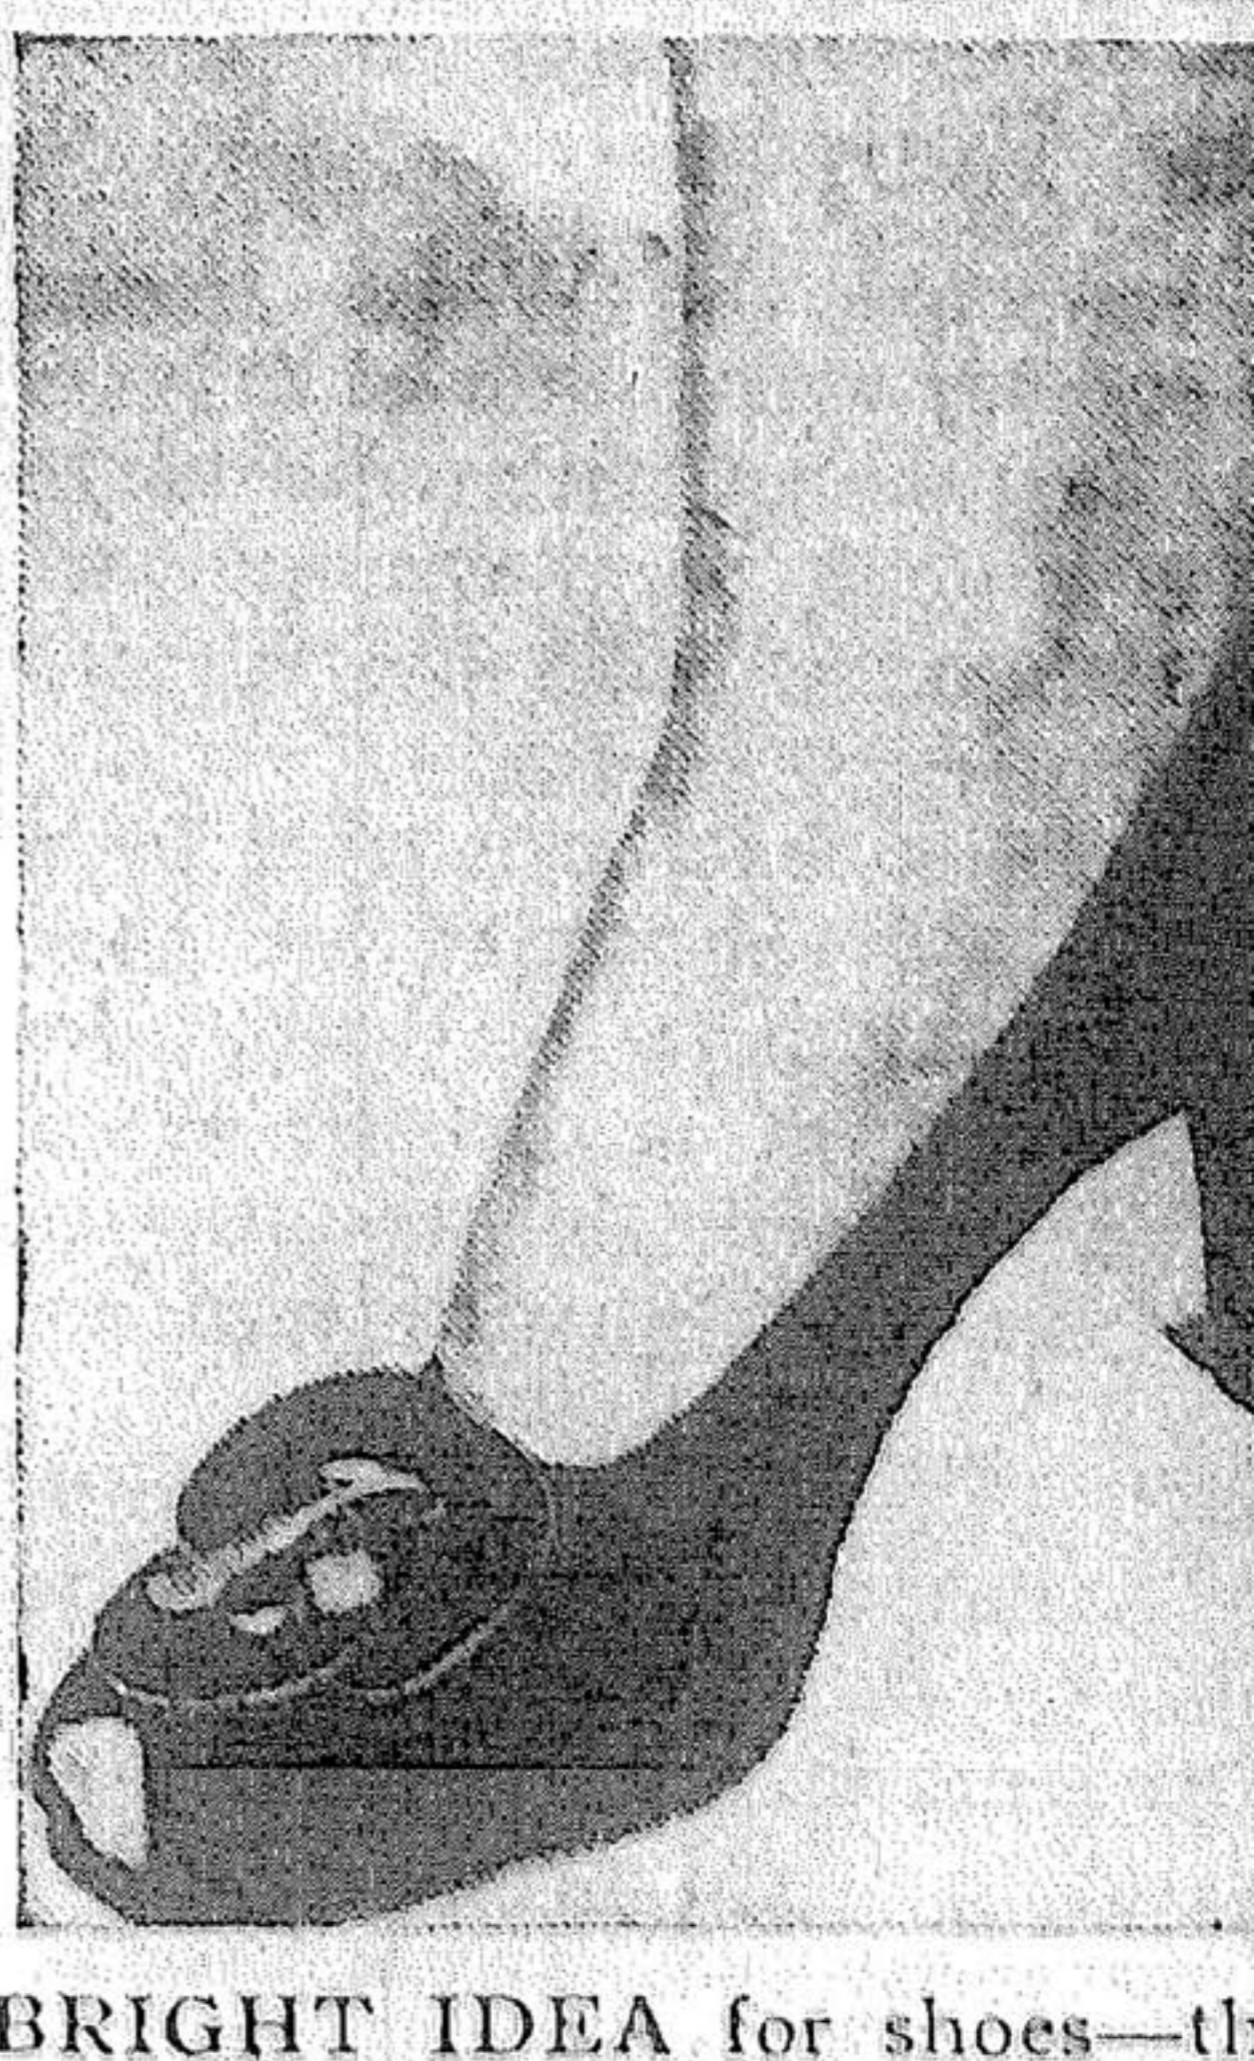

December 6—Mrs. Ina Fitch, Box 12, Marlette, Mich.; Mrs. Margarethe Thomas, 3088 Garland avenue; Mrs. Wm. Godd-fellow, 5784 Maxwell avenue.

December 7—Mrs. H. Nichols, 12401 Indian avenue; Mrs. Florence Fay, 6459 Plainview avenue; Mrs. Agnes Klatt, 2145 S. 20th street, Milwaukee.

December 8—Mrs. Mary Kretchmer, 91 E. Henry street, River Rouge.

December 9—Mrs. M. Segesta, 3033 Marlborough avenue.

Initialed

BRIGHT IDEA for shoes—t put big gold handbag initials be found in a bag dep

For further information call The Det between 9 a. m. a

Grandmother Confusing to

By MRS. H. S.

“BY, GRAMMA!” Billy's mother taught her small boy to wave his pudgy little fingers when Grandmother began to make suggestions about his care. The child was a cunning baby and no one took exception at his little trick.

But the time is coming when Billy's response to direction from his grandmother will be neither cute nor clever. It will be impertinent.

But where do grandmothers come in, anyway? The truth is, that for the most part they don't come in. Someone argues that older women have had experience. They know more about babies than young, inexperienced mothers can hope to know, especially with the first baby.

There always has to be a first baby. If it isn't the first-born

Cradle Roll

THE children whose names are printed below are new members of The Detroit News Cradle Roll.

To enroll your child and receive YOUR BABY'S FIRST YEAR, booklet, written by Mrs. H. S. Mallory, send baby's name, date of birth, parents' names and address, and inclose 10 cents.

SALLY JANE BAUER

- Gary John Hoetger, 850 Loralne avenue, Grosse Pointe
- Patricia Lowana Czyzewski, 13018 Mitchell avenue
- Lee George Hall, 1518 Fullerton avenue
- Gary Lee Warren, Osseo
- Sandra Gail Taylor, 5957 Baldwin avenue
- Coleman James DeConick, Walled Lake
- Carol Anne Crane, 14230 Ohio avenue
- Helen Elaine Steinger, 2611 Tuxedo avenue
- Carol Ann Kroenig, 5740 Dickerson avenue
- Lawrence Harold Rohr, Mackinac Island
- John Henry Mertens, 925 Emerson avenue.
- Susan Phyllis Blondy, 17530 Roselawn avenue.
- Larry Elton Telford, 2746 Virginia Park.
- Anita Enkel, 25 South avenue, Mt. Clemens.
- Daniel Krause, 17131 Northlawn avenue.
- James Alvin Faulkner, 6027 Fourteenth street.
- Robert Charles Peal, 18546 Westmoreland road.
- Helen Karen Falconer, 12018 Wade avenue.
- Melvyn David Shewack, 2555 Pingree avenue.

Made by Star Quilters

MRS. FLORENCE MCGINNIES, 3544 Gladwin avenue, shows two quilts which have just been finished and added to her supply. The one at the right was made and quilted by the members of the Star Quilt Club, which meets every Thursday at the Bradley Recreation Center.