Santa! Here Are Gifts That Children Want!

Bol-li-o Game $1.09

Mother and father will probably want to borrow it when they entertain informally in the recreation room. It's a variation of the popular game of bowling—takes up less space, too. Easy and fun to play, can be used indoors now—and out-of-doors, come summer. See this set in Toy Town.

WEAVING LOOM $1.10

Children of camp age can weave yarn into such usable articles as mats, bags, neckties, and belts. Set includes adjustable frames, colored yarn, large blunt needles, instructions.

ELECTRIC STOVE $4.98

Here's a grand toy for budding little housekeepers! A sturdy metal toy stove like Mother's. It stands 14 inches overall, has ivory finish, really heats when plugged in!

LAUNDRY SET $1

"This is the way we wash our clothes"—with this glass washing machine that really works! Includes a metal tub, a dryer to hang clothes, wringer, basket, clothes pin.

SKI JUMPER $1

Start him on his way and watch the skier glide down the incline, leap into space, somersault over the hurdle and make a good three-point landing.

Tony Sarg Book . . . $1.98

These beloved tales with animated illustrations, that help the youngsters see out the stories. Featuring Alice in Wonderland, Treasure Island, Rip Van Winkle.
