

Friendship Quilt Presented to Pastor's Wife

Standing, left to right: Mrs. Geo. Jenks, Mrs. Fred Eldridge, Mrs. Emma Harmon, Mrs. Clayton Nacker, Mrs. David McGaffin, Mrs. Marie Ward and Mrs. Ruth E. French. Sitting, left to right: Mrs. Wm. F. Streufert, Mrs. J. E. McWilliams, Mrs. Theresia Groth, Mrs. G. E. Westlake, Mrs. C. S. Curtis, Mrs. Anthony Westlake and Mrs. Wm. Gardner.

Over 500 Names Written on This Charming Quilt

By EDITH B. CRUMB.

THE members of the Quilters' Division of the Women's Union of the Redford Avenue Presbyterian Church took advantage of the absence of their pastor's wife to plan a friendship quilt for her and on her return from California had it nearly finished. There is still some quilting to be done on it and Mrs. J. E. McWilliams, the pastor's wife, is helping with it. This is really better than having it all finished upon her return, for, if every one in the circle works upon it, it makes it more completely a friendship quilt.

The design was laid out by Mrs. C. S. Curtis and the central motif—a basket of flowers, appliqued—is a memorial to those members who have served as officers of the Women's Union of their church.

The scheme is French blue and white, the design being triangles throughout with the names of 550 members written on the white triangles. Mrs. Curtis wrote every one of these names so that the writing would be uniform and all of the members helped with the embroidering, piecing and quilting.

There is a Wild Goose Chase border on the quilt and I was informed that there is to be another border of points as a final touch to the edge.

The members of this division have delightful days of quilting with pot-luck lunches and the proceeds go toward the maintenance of the church.

Wednesday I will tell you about a church society which had such a lovely quilt exhibit last Friday. You will be interested in reading about it, I am sure, so do not fail to look for the Corner on that day.

Missed the Show.

DEAR MISS CRUMB: It's useless to attempt to say how much I hated to have to miss the Quilt Exhibit. As Mrs. Purcell told you, I was ill, but I am gradually getting my strength back. I have been improving my convalescent moments by sewing on my Indian Trail. As soon as I was able to sit up, I just had to keep my mind and fingers busy.

How I would like to have been able to be at the exhibit all three days, as I had planned!

Mrs. Wendelborn called on me last week. I was glad to meet her for I had heard quite a bit about her.

I am anxious to see what the new pattern is. Did I hear something about a new pattern?

Best wishes for the third year of the Quilt Club. May we be kept in stitches! Quiltingly.

MRS. O. D. MacLEOD,
10022 Morley avenue,
Detroit, Michigan.

Isn't quilt making just the perfect occupation for the convalescent, Mrs. MacLeod? I am sorry that you were unable to attend this year, but be sure to keep up the good work so that you will have that Indian Trail finished in time for the next show, if there is one.

Oh, yes, you heard something about a new pattern and it won't be long before it will be well on its way and fingers will be flying to finish it.

Please don't neglect us, for we are all looking forward to more letters from you.

DEAR MISS CRUMB: What has happened to our broadcast and Quilt Corner in The News? I surely miss hearing you and Beatrice over the radio. We have a radio of our own now, as our house is wired at last.

I am still making quilts, and have a Father's bow tie on the quilting frames right now.

I surely did enjoy the quilt show, and wouldn't have missed seeing all those lovely quilts for a great deal, although I was very tired when I got home again.

Well, I must close, but I do hope the Quilt Corner will continue, as I, for one, hate to see it go, and I think there will be many more who think the same as I do.

MRS. EDNA C. BERNARD,
Route 2, Fenton, Mich.

I don't think we will have to worry about losing the Quilt Club Corner as long as every one is as nice as you are about writing, Mrs. Bernard.

As for the Corner on radio, it has been discontinued for a while. Is it missed?

I am happy to know that you at-

ing. Gratitude is a noble virtue. Surely all of us have something to be thankful for. In the spirit of the season, I have selected the lovely verses by James Whitcomb Riley entitled "The Perfect Prayer." The sentiment of these verses express my wish for all of us:

Dear Lord! Kind Lord!
Gracious Lord! I pray
They will look on all I love
Tenderly today
Weed their hearts of fearfulness
Scatter every care
Down a wake of angel songs
Winnowing the air

Bring unto the sorrowing
All relief from pain
Let the lips of laughter
Overflow again
And with all the needy
O divide, I pray
This vast treasure of content
That is mine today!

Old Warrant Used.

SAIT LAKE CITY, Nov. 12. — A military land warrant issued in 1847 to George T. and Lenora Gould, minor children of a deceased Maine militarian, turned up recently at the federal land office here. With it, the original holders could have claimed any 150 acres of the public domain. At present it is worth about $200 as payment on a commuted homestead, desert homestead or timber claim.

Ways to Capture Beauty From the Make-Up Box

—Posed by Miriam Hopkins.

NON-satisfactory and not drying, but I am never without a cold cream used as a base, so that may be one reason why it worked so well. You may want to try it off with tended the show and had such an enjoyable time. Please write again soon.

Pre-War Hoard Worthless.

SPLIT, Yugoslavia, Nov. 19.—(AP)—An 80-year-old peasant woman was amazed when she offered to pay for a ship passage with Austro-Hungarian empire crowns and was told the coins were worthless. She said she had just dipped into savings which she had not touched for 20 years. Sympathetic by-standers collected enough Yugoslav dinars to pay her fare.

A BAKI

Yessir! We'll go "a-baking" because this week Kroger is featuring low prices on everything necessary for Thanksgiving Baking... Be sure to join the economy parade to your KROGER STORE.

OUR MOTHERS

COCO

OUR MOTHERS

CHOCO

AVONDALE

FLOUR

MICHIGAN MADE

SUGAR

Bulk RICE

Her Grace VANILLA

Sudan Assorted SPICES

Jewel Hot-Dated COFFEE

Ask your Kroger Manager how Beautiful Real Crystal Syrup BISQUICK

STE

Thick and juicy C house Steaks—Yo tender cuts!

Fresh GROUND B

Fresh Sliced BEEF LIVER .

Center Cut PORK CHOI

Shoulder