

THE YOUNG WRITERS CLUB

School Lets Out

Drawn by Agnes Lynch, 11 years old

Preparing for Christmas

By Nellie Parrish

The Mysterious Light

By Helen Noyes, 11 Years Old
Richard Reporter

ONE day about 10 o'clock in the morning, Bob, Ray and Jerry Kelly were coming home from a walk by means of an old road. The road was not very much used, so it was in very bad condition. It was a very dark day, and

Tell Me— Aunt Kaye

MARY CASSIDA wants to know if the puzzles printed in our Section are sent in by the boys and girls. No, the pictures are done by our staff artists.

Romana Stevens wants Carol Raitingall to know that she thinks Carol's poem was very good.

Please do not ask to have contributions of stories, poems or drawings returned. Grace Robertson wants to know if subjects are suggested for stories and poems. The boys and girls think up their own ideas. But if the Young Writers would like subjects suggested, we will print them.

Lucille Jaswicz wants to know if one may use the parts of an animal or object in answering the puzzles. It depends on what the objects are. You cannot say, for instance, boat, boat, ice, boat, strap, etc. You may use the different names by which an object is known, such as low, heel, stinker.

If anyone wants to know how many puzzles to be done, he may come to the Young Writers Club and ask for the list.

Mary Anne wants to know if she may use the drawing in the puzzles. No, she may not. If a Young Writer sends any contributions to our weeklies, we will credit for the best one separate credits for each one. When you see two separate credits with a name in the credit list, it means that through an error the work was credited the week before. The Young Writers would like some other form of puzzle. How do

Piecing Quilts

Drawn by Dorothy Lepore, 11 years old