

Here Are 14 Busy Quilt-Makers in Palmer Park Presbyterian Church

By EDITH B. CRUMB.

This department seeks to give assistance to all who are interested in beautifying their homes and will be glad to answer questions pertaining to interior decoration. In order to serve all who seek advice promptly no more than three problems will be discussed in any one reply. Readers are invited to write to this department as often as they wish, but to limit each letter to three questions. State your questions clearly, write only on one side of the paper, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope, and address Beauty in the Home Department, Detroit News. Letters with their answers will be published for the benefit of all homemakers, but names and addresses will not be made public.

WHEN THE members of the Woman's Association of the Palmer Park Presbyterian Church gather to work on quilts they carry on in a big way, for they have a club room in the basement in which they could very easily set up six large quilting frames and when this picture was taken, two tops were being quilted. No wonder they finished 20 quilts during the past year!

With many hands working on one quilt, it is finished in a very short time, the binding applied and there are the frames waiting for another; but there is usually another one to go right on for quilting.

I always ask where the materials for the quilt are found and discover that most of the women make children's clothes, aprons or house dresses and that the scraps from these are never wasted.

It seems as if every home now has a piecework or patchwork quilt in the making and those who do not usually have a lovely old one hidden away in some old packing box or trunk in the attic.

Do you realize that you have but two more days in which to enter your quilts. I know that a great many more would have been in Saturday afternoon had it not been for the bad weather, but today has made up for it and the quilts have been coming in thick and fast. If you were not one of the quilt parade, please see that your quilt reaches the main office of The Detroit News not later than Wednesday afternoon (November 15.)

If your quilt is new it must be made from a Detroit News pattern and if you have not sent in coupon and discover now that you have a quilt, do not worry about the coupon, but just bring in the quilt anyway.

The hours for the Quilt Contest are 12 noon to 4:30 and arrangements have been made so that you may call for your quilts on the day after the Contest closes (Monday, November 20.)

Quilt Club Corner.

I would like to be a member of your Quilt Club Corner. I have been making quilts for 25 years and I have a beautiful collection of them. I expect to exhibit some antique quilts at your Contest and am making a Jacob's Ladder from one of your patterns and hope I can get it finished in time for the Contest.

I think it is a good idea to ex-

Important Notice Regarding Contest

IF YOU have not already entered your quilt for the Contest, please do so not later than the afternoon of Wednesday, November 15, and if you can possibly do so before that, you will be helping to make the display much easier to handle.

Remember—if your quilt is new it must be made from a News' pattern and if antique must be at least 50 years old. You may enter as many of each class as you wish.

If you have a new News' pattern quilt top only, it may be entered, for there is a section for tops as well as completed quilts.

Please write your name and address on a piece of cloth and sew it to the back of one corner of your quilt.

The hours for the exhibit are from 12 noon to 10 p. m. on Friday, Saturday and Sunday (November 17, 18 and 19), at the United States Naval Armory, on East Jefferson just east of the Belle Isle bridge.

All quilts are to be brought to the main office of The Detroit News, Second and Lafayette boulevards, between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.

change patches and I am going to bring a basket of them. I expect to be there every day as so many of my friends are going and I don't want to miss any of them.

MRS. BURTON S. KNAPP,
712 S. Monroe St.,
Monroe, Michigan.

You are going to be a very welcome person at the Contest, Mrs. Knapp, and what fun you are going to have exchanging patches. So many are planning to do that that it promises to be a very interesting gathering of quilt-makers. Thank you for writing in, and I hope that you will write again later on.
