Colorful Quilt Pieced From Silk

tice, he will be very helpful to you, I know.

I have a cousin who, many years ago, was situated about as you are, with a glorious voice of lovely quality and wide range. She had no money to pursue her studies, either, but learned a great deal from joining choirs in Boston and New York. She had an offer to sing minor roles in Metropolitan grand opera when she was a girl, but her mother refused to allow her to accept.

You are right in your innate recognition that there is something that can help you. There is. It will come to you some day, dear. Whether you are rich or whether you are poor, you can accomplish your purpose if you resolve to do so and stick to your resolution, and refuse to be discouraged by obstacles or objections.

I would keep right on reading, and joining clubs. The church can help you there, too. There are always young people's clubs where boys and girls have lovely times together. It is not necessary for you to have elaborate clothing. Not long ago the students in a college took a vote, and offered a prize for the best-dressed girl. The winner's mother was a widow who was earning her living and helping her daughter through college by working. The girl's wardrobe was as meager tience. If you make them feel at home, with a genuine, comradely hospitality, they will enjoy themselves. Now with spring all abloom, you can pretty up your house with flowers and blossoming branches, or even with deli-

DAILY THOUGHT

(Sent by "Wind from the North")

SERENE, I fold my hands and wait,
Nor care for wind, or tide, or sea;
I rave no more 'gainst time or Fate,
For lo! my own shall come to me.
The stars come nightly to the sky:
The tidal wave unto the sea;
Nor time, nor space, nor deep, nor high
Can keep my own away from me.
—JOHN BURROUGHS.

cate green sprays, if you have no flowers. Perhaps Mother might be able to manage just a bit of lunch now and then for your young friends. Suppose you invited three besides yourself, in for the evening to play cards or checkers or any game you choose. Mother would make a few sand-

I agree with the parents who want their 16 and 17-year-old children to be home by 11 or 11:30 at the latest, on ordinary occasions, with a rare exception in favor of a party or a dance that lasts till midnight, on Friday or Saturday night.

Ask some of your girl or boy companions to teach you to dance. It is not difficult to learn, and they will gladly help you, I know.

I would not be too discouraged about my brothers fighting. It seems natural for boys. But I would still keep right on trying to reduce them to peaceful ways—by peaceful methods, as often as possible. Whipping will accomplish its purpose sometimes, but not always. Better make the lad want to do what you want him to do. He will be more apt to do it than he will if he is forced into it with a strap.

I do not think you are a "foolish person," Patience, dear—quite the contrary.

I should like to have you write to us again.

DEAR NANCY BROWN: Please accept the inclosed check for $5.00 from the Woman's Association of Boulevard Congregational Church for the Peace Carillon Fund, in memory of all the mothers of Boulevard Church.

With greatest wishes for success.

Most sincerely,

ELSIE HAEGER, Treas.

The check will be used as you ask. Mrs. Haeger is at the

Quilt Group Contributes to Church

By EDITH B. CRUMB

FOR 15 years the women of the Needlecraft Group of the North Woodward Congregational Church have met every Tuesday summer and winter for an all day session of quilting in the assembly room of the church.

When it's necessary to finish some quilt in a hurry they meet more often than this and occasionally there is a day's quilting in the home of one of the members. The group as shown is being entertained at the residence of Mrs. Claribel Yates, 2934 West Grand Boulevard.

When the group is quilting at the church, the luncheons are prepared by the church housekeeper and when she is on a vacation they have pot-luck luncheons.

THE quilt shown in the picture is made from the good old-time Log Cabin pattern and all pieces are silk. The back is to be plain mahogany sateen and when completed will be a beautiful covering.

This is one of many church circles which earn money for their organizations, the proceeds from some quilts going into the general treasury, while others go for new carpeting, the coal bill, etc. And so it goes—many hours and thousands of little stitches going into the building up and maintaining of a large organization.

PERHAPS your church circle does quilting. If so, write and tell us about it. We would be happy to hear from you and look forward to a letter telling us how many there are in the circle, how long it has been organized, how often you meet and to what purpose you put the money earned by this quilting.

If you have not already called for your quilt which you entered in the show, please do so as soon as possible. These are now being given out at the information desk on the first floor of the main building of The Detroit News, Second and Lafayette avenues.
