

Has Gay Joining Strips

MRS. MARTHA GALBRAITH,

4386 Dickerson avenue, has just finished this Sunbonnet Baby quilt top which she started eight years ago. She has worked out an unusual scheme of green, yellow and orchid strips to join the blocks together.

Shower of Valentines at Quilt Club Meeting

By EDITH B. CRUMB

YESTERDAY was a happy one at the Quilt Club Corner meeting, for Valentines were flying about in great fashion. It took May Mancuse, Mrs. Eva Schaub and Mrs. Kay Patterson a long time to get all of them distributed and I have a few left to be given out next week.

Mrs. Martha Galbraith, 4386 Dickerson avenue, brought a Sunbonnet Baby quilt top to show us. She started this eight years ago and when she took the last stitch in it recently she decided that St. Valentine's Day would be a good one to bring it to the Cornerites meeting.

The background of the blocks is white and they are put together with light green, yellow and orchid strips. Now Mrs. Galbraith will have to get busy and quilt it so that it will be ready for the next show.

MR.S. MARY STROBILIUS says she has her Mohawk Trail quilt on the hoops and is certainly going to have it ready for the show. Mrs. Lena Clinton and Mrs. Josephine Coscia came to the meeting with Mrs. Strobilius. It seemed like old times to see these three together again.

And Mrs. Oscar Miller and Mrs. Venus Bell came all the way in from Birmingham. Mrs. Miller is planning to move to Fowlerville, so it may be difficult for her to be with us often. We hope that Mrs. Bell will come anyway.

MR.S. IVA MAE HARRIS brought her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Gochnour, 18082 Blitmore avenue. We hope she enjoyed herself so much that she will want to come every Friday with her mother.

Mrs. Belle Hardy, 2012 MacDougal avenue; Mrs. Gabrielle Baecheroot, 3573 Hancock avenue east, and Mrs. Rose Alexander, Route 1, Box 932, Detroit, are ill—so they could not attend the Valentine party.

MR.S. EVA SCHAUB wishes to thank all who were so kind to her while she was ill. She found it difficult to be very sick for she had so many calls, telephone messages, cards and notes that she almost forgot about her illness. She brought a big box of red candy hearts from the East Side Friendship Quilt Club—as Valentine Greetings.

Very little in the way of quilting, crocheting or knitting was accomplished, although May Mancuse did struggle through a few hard stitches on that war relief sweater that she is helping me knit and by next week she will probably surprise us by having the front entirely finished.
