

troiter Going East to Usher at Former Classmate's Rites

Colonel's Lady Others' . . . .

By JUDY O'GRADY

19 Buckley Byers and Rosamond Murray will be married in New York. Although it will be a very quiet ceremony, by families and intimate friends, it will go down in annuals as outstanding of the late fall season. Rosamond is the cousin of Mrs. Henry Ford II, at whose wedding she was a bridesmaid and Buckley, an usher. Buckley and Henry were classmates at Yale and at the approaching ceremony Henry will be an usher.

The ceremony will take place at the Murray home on East Ninetieth. Therese Murray will be her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. J. William Y. Martin, of Glyndon, Md., sister of Buckley, will be matron of honor. J. Frederic Byers, Jr., will be his brother's best man.

Maybe the Fords will return with news concerning a second wedding in the family which was set for this fall. That of Anne's sister, Catherine McDonnell, to Raymond P. Sullivan, Jr., of New York.

And speaking of home weddings:

Mrs. Charles Clippert's house on Virginia Park will be converted with palms and ferns and cathedral candelabra for the ceremony in which Mrs. Clippert's granddaughter, Christine Kennedy, will become Mrs. Charles Delno Todd, Jr. Christine is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Stuart Kennedy and her fiance's father is Dr. and Mrs. Charles Todd, of Seward avenue.

Rev. Kirk O'Ferrall will read the service at 8:30 in the WEAKER SEX TACTICS.

Daisy Mae style, in these parts run to merely calling for one's escort and supplying him with a vegetable corsage. At least that's the plan for tonight's Sadie Hawkins dance at Grosse Pointe High School.

Some of the more strong-minded lassies, however, have a regular evening planned. Junior understands that a contingent of them has promised their escorts that wherever they wish to go for snacks after the dancing will mean they're practically there! What's more, Elizabeth Anne Kuhn will hostess a dinner party in her home on Marschner, Peggy Collins and Phil Grady.

BY THE WAY, Wayne U's Intersorority Ball was held last eve at General Motors Ballroom, and the lassies extended themselves a bit by presenting the men with clever little tie clips adorned with the intersorority crest. Delta Gamma Chi gals qualified for possession of the scholarship cup, and the members congregated in the Delt booth afterwards for mutual congratulations. Toni Martin was chairman of the formal, you know.

Yesterday was reunion day out at Detroit University School. Following the DUS grid game with Detroit Country Day School, there was a jolly homecoming dinner at the school, at which there was much hashing over of old times by the alums.

Cornerites Have Chatty Reunion

By EDITH B. CRUMB

YESTERDAY afternoon the Quilt Club Corner members came back to the first meeting after a three weeks' vacation and there was a great deal of chatting about what went on during that time.

Mrs. Mary Sorensen went to Chicago for a visit and while there called on our friend, Mrs. Mary Gasperik, 9314 Cottage Grove avenue. She and Mrs. Gasperik had a most enjoyable time talking over patterns, patches and quilt shows.

Mrs. Gasperik has already started her quilt for the next Detroit News show and even though Mrs. Sorensen knows what it is she won't tell me a single thing about it for she promised that she would keep it a secret.

Mrs. Leah White made a quilt from start to finish, even to every stitch of quilting and binding, during the vacation and now she has started another one.

MRS. EDW. C. SCHAUB and Mrs. Harry Patterson went out to see Mrs. Myrtle Lange and her friends. They spent the entire afternoon showing quilt patterns, giving out patches and doing a general good job of cheering up in the unique Schaub-Patterson way. They are going again soon.

The women in this ward at Eloise are working hard and if you have any colored embroidery, thread or crochet cotton that you will not have any use for, they would be grateful if you would send it out to them. Just address it to Mrs. Myrtle Lange, Ward 202, Building "A".

By the way, Mr. Schaub and Mr. Patterson went along with their wives and Mr. Schaub brightened the afternoon by playing some lively tunes on the piano.

Mrs. Anne Zumbro is busy driving her car for the American Red Cross. She delivers materials, picks up articles and also helps with sewing. Right now she is knitting a sweater of Royal Air Force blue for the Red Cross.

MRS. BELLE HARDY is just as busy as she can be dressing five dolls for the Goodfellows Christmas distribution. She found these dolls waiting for her on her return from a vacation in Ohio and she started right out to do her best to make five little girls happy.

Mrs. Marian Ridler, who is Chairman No. 13 for the Nancy's Belles' Bazar which is to be held December 2 and 3 at the Arcadia Ball Room, is anxious to have you bring anything you have which is salable for her booth.

She suggests dresser scarfs, hot pan holders, tea towels, etc., and is especially interested in quilts for dolls' beds.

Mrs. Gabriel Baecheroot has a treat for you. She sent to Pennsylvania for some old fashioned quilt prints and has donated some to the Quilt Club Corner. So the next time we prepare the mystery envelopes some of these will be tucked in for you. I know they will be very pleasing and they fit into the old fashioned quilts beautifully.
