LADY MAKING PATCH QUILT SILHOUETTE

A I that has to be done to the inch and a half or two-inch margin all around. This department has two other silhouette leaflets, which would be very charming if framed and grouped with this one. One of the leaflets has a maiden at an old-time spinet and the other has a pair of heads, one of an old-time lady and the other of a gentleman. If you would like to have these silhouettes also, just send your request for them to the Beauty in the Home Department, The Detroit News, enclosing with it a self-addressed, stamped envelope. A large envelope should be used for the maiden at the spinet, as folding the leaflet would spoil the silhouette.

This would be attractive with an
