

DIGNITY and charm combined are evident in the room as shown in the accompanying illustration, and have been created not by the selection of furnishing alone, but also by the architectural background.

The fireplace is one which demands a balanced treatment, for while simple, it is dignified and formal, making an ideal center of interest for a room such as this.

Because the wall space is cut up with archways and recesses, paint has been selected for its treatment, and if one had a room of this type, there are many color schemes which might be worked out satisfactorily for it, the first one having a neutral background, a light tint of beige being selected.

For the floor covering there might be plain carpeting in a deep wine red shade, this color being repeated in the draperies which might be of moire and finished floor length. The glass curtains would be attractive and appropriate if made of light ecru casement cloth, equipped to traverse.

Deep blue ground flowered chintz, gold damask and red velvet might be brought out in the furniture coverings, a soft gold tint being selected for the lamp shades.

Another scheme has a light apricot tint for the walls and blue green for the floor covering with rust brought out as the third color to bring interest into the scheme.

Light blue green walls might be attractive to some and with these blue green draperies and floor covering in deeper shades would be effective, dark red being brought out in the accessories with white for the lamp shades and picture mats.

doubt, you will keep right on after the Contest. Don't you think so?

I HAVE listened to the broadcast for the first time this week. It is most interesting.

I have made four Flower Garden quilts. All are of different sizes and color contrasts.

I enjoy the new quilting hoops very much. I could not quilt without them. They are so compact.

I hope to attend the exhibit. It will be lovely, I'm sure.

MRS P. L. HUTCHINS,

If your Flower Garden quilts are from News patterns, why don't you enter them in the Contest. Mrs. Hutchins? I don't like to think of anyone who has made a Detroit News quilt being left out of the Contest. Of course, you must attend the exhibit. Isn't it going to be fun to try to guess who the different members are? Many who have old gold for the furniture covering also creates a conservative, though charming, scheme.

Quilt Club Corner.

I WANT to thank you in behalf of the ladies of the Grand River Club for the honor of being the first club to be pictured in the Corner.

We were all so excited that we forgot to thank you before you left. We will all try to be together the first day of the Contest.

We enjoy our gatherings every Thursday at one another's homes getting ready for the Contest.

MRS. M. LAWSON,

Yes, Mrs. Lawson, your's was the first club picture in the Corner, but Thursday and Friday I am planning on having two more. One

Important Notice of Quilt Contest

DUE to the fact that so many have written in for an extension of time on their quilts, it has become necessary to postpone the Quilt Contest until November 17, 18 and 19.

Now—will everyone who has ever made a quilt from a News pattern consider exhibiting it? More than one may be entered and all that one has to do is to fill out the coupon which will be found on this page Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays and send it to the Beauty in the Home Department, The Detroit News. This notice must be in before November 10 and your cooperation in sending it in as quickly as possible will be appreciated.

If you have never made a quilt from a News pattern, but have an old quilt, 50 years of age or more, you may enter that. There is a great interest in old quilts and you will be aiding in the revival of this early American occupation if you will allow others to see some heirloom which you may have.

Will you not send in your coupon at once?

never written in have, no doubt, read the Corner and will be interested in attending.

Paint, no matter how hard and dry, can be taken out of woolen clothing by using a solution of equal parts of ammonia and turpentine. Saturate the spot two or three times, then wash out with soap suds.
