

the Home

H CRUMB

that the kitchen was the gathering its friendliness, its complete hominess ound in the country—but not in the out this type of kitchen—their kitch-anner, to give an order to the cook or eir kitchens are marvels of efficiency modern word in skillful decoration.

color—but they have none of the res tarrying for longer than duty having small bouquets of flowers in rose, blue, yellow and lavender with a touch of green, the lavender predominating.

The glass curtains may be of

Wee Companion For Gay Miss

HAVE you sent for last week's silhouette entitled "Gay Little Miss in Silhouette"? If so, you will be glad to know that there is waiting for you the head of a little boy to be used as a companion picture to the little miss.

If you do not have the Gay Little Miss, perhaps you would like this week's leaflet anyway. Then you can tell whether you like the idea well enough to send for another one.

This silhouette is white on a black background. There is a fine oval in white, which allows for the picture to be framed in either a square or oval frame.

In order that this silhouette will not have to be folded be sure to send a large envelope.

All you have to do to receive this charming little picture, is to send your request for it to the Beauty in the Home Department, The Detroit News, and enclosed with it a large sized, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

cream French marquisette finished with one-inch side hems, a three-inch bottom hem and made long enough to reach to the sill.

The over-draperies may be of yellow silk broadcloth trimmed with ruffles of lavender silk broadcloth. These may be made long enough to reach to the bottom of the apron, be caught back with ruffled tie-backs and put up with a ruffled valance.

The dresser covers may be of cream linen finished with hem-stitched borders, and the lamp shades may be of yellow chiffon over taffeta of the same color, trimmed top and bottom with lavender moire ribbon binding.

The ceiling may be light cream.