

She Has Arranged Her Trip in a Different Formation

By EDITH B. CRUMB

JUST imagine that! Mrs. Cordelia Reed, 23244 Sunnyside avenue, Detroit, writes to ask if she is too old to join the Quilt Club Corner and she is only 65! Even when quilt-makers are 92 and 93 they do not admit they are anything but young and spry. So there is no reason why Mrs. Reed should not belong to the Corner and her name has certainly been included in the membership list, which is getting very, very long and interesting.

Here you see her sewing away on her quilt, putting a few finishing touches in it and then she will fold it carefully and tuck it away until time to bring it down to the main office of The Detroit News, Second and Lafayette, which must not be done any earlier than October 1 nor later than October 12.

HAS THREE QUILTS

The quilt as shown is the Trip Around the World put together in a very different style than that to which we are accustomed; and she also has a Dresden Plate as well as a Double Monkey Wrench quilt made from News patterns.

So, now we hope to have Mrs. Reed enter all three of her quilts and I know that if she visits the show the first day she will want to come the other two.

ABOUT ENTRY COUPON

The large Quilt Entry coupon in the paper today is for the use of those who do not belong to The Detroit News Quilt Club but wish to enter quilts in the show. So, if you have quilts or tops, new or antique, crocheted or knitted spreads, wool afghans or hand woven coverlets which you would like to enter, please fill out the coupon and return it to the Quilt Club Corner editor of The Detroit News, as soon as possible.

A Loyal Member

DEAR MISS CRUMB: I want to join the Quilt Club. I have been quilting for three years. I have completed five quilts, have number six ready for the frames and am now working on the seventh and eighth.

I haven't a quilt that could possibly win a prize but I may enter one any way. It will be thrilling to find my quilt among so many and will help to make the exhibit more interesting.

MRS. J. T. FORSHEE,
310 KITCHENER AVE.,
DETROIT, MICH.

Now, that is what I call loyalty—for Mrs. Forshee to feel that she has a quilt which could not take a prize and yet she wants to do her part to make the exhibit more interesting. That is a fine spirit, Mrs. Forshee, and you don't know how I appreciate receiving that letter. I wish you would enter five or six.

You must not be so modest about your accomplishments. Perhaps you might have a prize or ribbon-winner without realizing it. Thank you so much for that letter which makes me so happy.

About Cleaning Quilt

DEAR MISS CRUMB—It has been some time since I have written to our Corner. I have not done any work on my quilts since last winter but as soon as we have some cooler weather I am going to get busy.

I was not able to attend either of the other quilt shows but want to attend the one this fall.

I have a quilt to enter. I was a year and a half making it (but pieced three tops and quilted four tops during that time). I had to do all the housework for from six

Imagine! She Thinks She Is Old!

Here is Mrs. Cordelia Reed trying hard to get her quilt finished for the Detroit News Quilt Show which is to be held in the United States Naval Armory, October 18, 19 and 20. Mrs. Reed has two other quilts which she may also enter. She is going to do her part to make this the largest quilt show.

to 11 so did not have much time for my quilts.

The one I want to enter is somewhat soiled from lying around. Will it be all right to have it dry-cleaned? It has never been used.

MRS. EVERETT MANCHESTER,
ROUTE NO. 1,
CLINTON, MICH.

We are happy to know that you are planning on entering a quilt in this show—but why not enter all of those tops and finished quilts also? Of course, the quilt you were so long

Quilt Entry Coupon

(Disregard this coupon if you have received an entry card through the mail.)

Quilt Club Corner Editor,
The Detroit News, Detroit, Michigan.

I am planning to make entries as follows in The Detroit News Quilt Show to be held October 18, 19 and 20. (Please state how many of each):

- ..... Quilts and.....Tops from News patterns.
- ..... " " " " from longest distance.
- ..... " " " " made by a child.
- ..... " " " " to compete for prize for largest number of pieces.
- ..... Antique quilts and.....antique tops
- .....Crocheted spreads.....knitted spreads.
- .....Wool afghans and.....hand-woven coverlets.

I understand that my articles must be at the main office of The Detroit News, Second and Lafayette boulevards, no earlier than October 1 nor later than October 12.

don't you think that it would be a good idea to wash it.

I think you did remarkably well to accomplish so much in the quilt-making line when you had so many household duties to attend to.

Now, please do all possible to attend the show. I am sorry that you missed the other two, but we promise you an interesting time this year, so do not disappoint us.

Wants To Join

DEAR MISS CRUMB: I have listened in on your broadcast, also attended quilting parties and received patterns from The Detroit News; but through it all I have said or done nothing to put me in good standing, so today I am going to start by asking you to please enter my name in your long list. I am surely thankful for this and won't keep so still from now on.

MRS. KATIE HEIM,
6037 Philip ave.,
Detroit, Mich.

You have never been considered in anything but good standing, Mrs. Heim, but it is a pleasure to add your name to our list and I hope that you will have quilts or tops or both to enter in the show and that you will attend, for I know that you will find it very interesting.
