

Young Moderns Wield Deft Needle

Hills Hearthside Cozy
Setting for Group.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS, MICH.

THE good old-fashioned days are here again! Our modern, younger set has taken up sewing. A cozy living room, brightened with arrangements of colorful autumn blooms . . . great, deep, comfortable chairs, occupied by a charming bevy of girls . . . and a hearth in which blazed a huge log, was the scene which greeted us in the Joseph A. Braun home one afternoon last week.

This group meets each Thursday to wield their needles or even do a bit of knitting, and we find they can do so in a very deft fashion. They plan to continue these gatherings through the brisk fall days into the winter months.

The Misses Virginia and Josephine Braun were hostesses last Thursday to the newly formed sewing club, which includes Miss Nancy Atkinson, Miss Delphine Vhay, Miss Suzanne House, Miss Jane Winningham, Miss Josephine Talliaferro, Mrs. John R. MacManus, Mrs. Charles L. Winningham, Mrs. William Brown Williams II, Mrs. Spencer Witbee, Mrs. William F. Blake, Jr., and Miss Jane Thompson.

Tea was served at the close of the afternoon as the sun was setting over the Hills.

THE annual tea given at Cranebrook by Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Stevens and the other members of the faculty for the mothers of the (Concluded on Page 2.)

Photo. and will
r. and

FALL CALENDAR IN HILLS HOLDS MANY INTERESTS

Moderns in Hills Deftly Wielding Needle Each Week

Hearthside Makes Cozy Setting for Circle of Younger Set.

(Concluded From Page One.)
Students will take place Oct. 14, at the school.

MISS JANET PAGE chose Friday evening as the occasion for a dinner in her home for Miss Eleanor Allington and Frederick H. Duffield, whose engagement was announced some time ago. Her guests numbered 10.

Mrs. Joseph F. Page entertained few of her friends informally at luncheon in her home Wednesday. The Wednesday hunts at Metacora which have previously been held early in the mornings have been changed from the sunrise to the sunset hour. Among those from the Hills who attended last Wednesday were Miss Annette Phillips and her father, George E. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Hammond, Miss Viola Hammond, Mrs. Reynolds Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Slocum Nichols, Miss Mary Isabel Davis, Miss Florence Skae, Miss Peggy Ainsworth, Mrs. Dee Carey Mott and Miss Betty Endicott.

MRS. EDWARD ASKIN SKAE, who has been attending the eleventh annual convention of the National Council of Catholic Women in Washington, D. C., returned to "West Wind Farms" Thursday.

Mrs. Sherman L. Depew, who left Monday for a short visit in Boston, is expected to return to "Hickory Grove Farm" early in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gillette, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton James, of Grosse Pointe, are spending the week-end in Middleton, O., as the house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Emerson.

Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, Jr. gave a small luncheon in her home Tuesday, afterward taking her guests for a sail on Orchard Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred S. Kennedy are closing their home in Lone Pine road for the winter months Nov. 1, and moving into their apartment in town.

Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy is in Washington, D. C., where she expects to remain for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Percy K. Loud, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred S. Kennedy and the Rev. and Mrs. W. Hamilton Aulenbach will journey to Ann Arbor Oct. 17 to witness the Ohio State-Michigan foot ball game. Following the game they will dine at the home of the Aulenbachs.

Mrs. F. W. A. Fitzsimons, who has been the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hoey, for 10 days returned to her home Monday.

MRS. GEORGE D. ALLISON, closed her home in Hickory Grove road for the season and moved into her apartment in town.

Bloomfield Set Spends Pleasant Afternoon Hours Before a Blazing Log Fire

LEFT TO RIGHT: Mrs. John R. MacManus, Miss Nancy Atkinson, Miss Josephine Taliaferro, Miss Jane Winningham, Mrs. Charles L. Winningham and Miss Josephine Brann. These attractive Bloomfield girls have formed a sewing club and gather each Thursday afternoon for an hour of knitting, stitching or a bit of needlepoint work. Three of these pleasant meetings have already taken place and have been voted a great success. It will be but a short time before the members will be as handy with the needle as the quaint ladies of the olden days.

summer at the Lake Angelus home of Mrs. Hodges' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Gallogly, will return to their home in Birmingham the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Charles L. Winningham returned to her home Oct. 3, following a week's visit in Cincinnati, O. Miss Jane Erwin, of Pittsburgh, Pa., was the guest last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Roehm. Edward Roehm, who is at present living in Akron, also spent the week-end with his parents.

Mrs. Clark Bennett and Mrs. Merllin A. Cudlip entertained the members of their bridge club at

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mack, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. John Storm, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Cavan, Mrs. Karel M. Rickerson and Mr. and Mrs. John Bane. Friday evening the players are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dodds, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Grindley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Lauver, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Pew, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Joslyn, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Joslyn, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Mock, Mr. and Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen, Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Eade and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Welch, Jr.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

ENGAGEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Van Doren announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to John William Bush, son of Mrs. W. H. Bush, of Portsmouth, O.

WEDDINGS.

Wellman and posters by Mrs. T. L. Thurber. Daily hostesses will include Mrs. Clifford C. Ranney, Mrs. L. B. Reid, Mrs. Harrison J. Stringham, Mrs. Loren T. Robinson, Mrs. Harold S. Gray and Mrs. William E. Essery.

Mrs. S. S. Little, of California, is the house-guest of Dr. Harriet Hawkins and is being honored at day evening at the Community House. The Rev. Dr. Augustus Record will speak on "Problems Facing the Coming Disarmament Conference."

Music Federation Meets This Week

Session To Be Held in tion in San Francisco in June will be given by Mrs. Ottaway and Mrs. Byrl Fox-Bacher, of Ann Arbor, who is both state and national chairman of contests. The board also will discuss the state federation program for the year.

DORA LUDWIG herself presents this clever