

Summer Quilt Seminars & Conferences

BLACK HILLS QUILTERS SEMINAR June 11 & 12, June 14 & 15. Two day seminars with Jean Du-Bois, Cheryl Bradkin, Marjorie Kerr, and Evelyn Rose. Each participant will take two seminars. Dormitory rooms are available at the College Inn Hotel. For info/ Black Hills Quilters Seminar, 818 St. Patrick St., Rapid City, South Dakota, 57701.

* * * * *

TEXTILE WORKSHOPS INC. will have workshop with Nancy Halpern June 17-22 in Santa Fe, New Mexico. A quilting seminar with lectures by Nancy Halpern & Mary Woodard Davis will be held on June 17. For info/write Mary Woodard Davis, Director, Textile Workshops, Inc., 320 Artist Rd., Bldg. 51, Santa Fe, NM or call 505/982-5204.

* * * * *

PATCH IN TIME #4 June 30, July 1, 2, & 3. A Quilt Show of National Importance to be held at the Jack Tar Hotel, Van Ness at Geary in San Francisco. The Mill Valley Quilt Authority and the QUILTERS' JOURNAL sponsors of the event, announced that the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibit of the 1978 Good House-keeping Quilt Contest prize winning quilts will be displayed. An added feature will be Jinny Beyer, "Ray of Light" the Grand Prize winner.

In addition to the Quilt Shows and rlerchants Mall classes for the beginner and advanced student will be available by such celebrities as Donna & Bryce Hamilton, Michael James, Mary Elizabeth Johnson, Jeffrey Gutcheon, Deborah Kakalia and Jean Ray Laury.

A special PRESENTATION LUAU in honor of Jean Ray Laury will be held on Monday, July 2.

Meals, workshops, and lectures have limited space so preregistration is recommended. For info/stamped self-addressed envelope (SSAE) to PnT #4, Box 270, Mill Valley, CA 94941 or phone 415/388-7578.

* * * * *

QUILT SYMPOSIUM '79 to be held July 5, 6, & 7 in Palo Alto, CA, presented by the Santa Clara Valley Quilt Association. Tours of San Francisco, the Santa Clara Valley, a mission and the American Museum of Quilts and Related Arts will be arranged for July 4. Lectures, workshops, demonstrations, exhibitor booths, and a quilt show are planned. Lectures include "Adapting Ethnic Designs" Holice Turnbow; "Get Yourself a Date" Julie Silber and Linda Reuther; "Hawaii Then and Now" Wailani Johansen; "That's the Way it Was" Joyce Aufderheidi; "Old Quilts Make New Money" Helen Squire; "The Midwest: A Heritage of Quilting" Chris Edmonds; "Canada's Quilts- Yesterday and Today" Mary Conroy; and "Nineteenth Century Quilts and Quiltmakers" Sandi Fox. Panel discussions include "Free Lancing", "Jurying Quilts", and "Get Your-self in Print." For info/P.O. Box 792, Campbell, CA 95008.

* * * * *

WEST COAST QUILTER'S CONFERENCE II to be held at Southern Oregon State College, Ashland, Oregon, July 22-16. Each participant will have an opportunity to attend two full 6-hour workshops and two one-hour lecture-demo "clinics". The list of 15 lecturers include Jinny Avery, Michael James, Elizabeth Akana, Beth Gutcheon, Jeffrey Gutcheon, Yvonne Porcella, Charlotte Patera. Optional events include the Oregon Shakespearean Festival production of "Midsummer Night's Dream", a tour of historic Jacksonville, and a Participants Parade of Fashion. For info/Dorothy Schaefer, 7606 NE Going St., Portland, Oregon 97218 or phone 503/255-6798.

