AMERICAN MUSEUM OF QUILTS & RELATED ARTS moves to new quarters

Sylvia Moore, Director of the Museum of Quilts and Related Arts announced that it has moved to larger quarters at 120 El Paseo de Saratoga, Saratoga Avenue at Lawrence Expressway in San Jose. The Museum which is open seven days a week with varying hours, is sponsored by the Santa Clara Valley Quilt Association which staffs and underwrites the project.

"We are delighted that our new larger guarters allows us room to show quilts in an antique setting as well as our usual method of displaying them hung full out," said Gloria Debs-Miyata, President of the association.

Quilts from the collection of Sandi Fox will be featured during the month of July.

THE SEMINOLE PATCHWORK BOOKS has patterns for 15 authentic designs plus great ideas. Reviewed in Fall 1978 QUILTERS' JOURNAL. $ 4.50 incl. 1st class postage. Cheryl Bradkin, 3534 Altamont Dr., Carmichael, CA 95608.

QUILTS: THE GREAT AMERICAN ART, by Patricia Mainardi. Just published, 80-page illustrated softbound book. "Transforms our notions about... women's role in the artistic heritage of this country. "Linda Nochiand (art historian museum curator) should be required reading for students of American history and art," Richard Martin, (editor, Arts Magazine) $ 3.25 postpaid. Satisfaction guaranteed!
