

Above: The Ladies' Aid Society of the Sedalia, Missouri Congregational Church designed this donkey named "Giddap".

Patterns from the Kansas City Star, July 17, 1977

Above: "Ararat" was the featured attraction of the Kansas City Zoo in 1931. He was originally designed in purple, gold and white. Below: A checked gingham donkey from Joyce Aufderheide's collection.

