in SEARS CENTURY of PROGRESS

QUILT CONTEST.

WOMEN from every state in the nation took part in Sears Century of Progress Quilt Contest and many, many beautiful and unusual designs were submitted. Due to the excellence and attractiveness of the thousands of quilts entered, the judges found it difficult to select winners of the $7,500.00 in cash prizes. Below is a list of the national and regional prize winners. Their quilts were on display all summer in Sears building at the World's Fair. Many local prizes were awarded, but space here does not permit showing a complete list.

Many of the prize winning patterns are shown in our new, Century of Progress Quilt Catalog. See page 219.

This is the quilt that won the Grand National Prize. Miss Margaret Rogers Caden of Lexington, Kentucky, shown below, is the winner. The quilt is now in the White House, a gift to the First Lady of the Land.
