Carol Aimes byline from Peerless Fashion Service, 1938-1941

Carol Aimes was a short-lived byline from Peerless Fashion Service, New York City, found in Illinois, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Oklahoma, Iowa, three Canadian newspapers (Edmonton, Alberta, and Windsor, Ontario and Ottawa, Ontario) and others. Carol Aimes followed the Mayfair byline (1936-1938) also from Peerless.

Mailing address was 119 West 19th Street, New York, N. Y., a known Peerless Fashion Service address 1937-1940.

The earliest date presently known for this byline offering quilt patterns is August 2, 1938, and the latest date is November 19, 1941, during which time Peerless was still promoting a few of the individual quilt patterns from the Grandmother's booklets (former Nancy Cabot / Chicago Tribune patterns).

A distinguishing detail with many Peerless quilt designs is a border with a mitered corner as in X3344.
