

SOWETO

The patchwork of our lives

An exhibition of work by The Zamani Soweto Sisters

BRIXTON ART GALLERY
21 Atlantic Road, London SW9.
24 May - 14 June 1986: Mon - Sat, 11 am - 6 pm.

Admission free

Fabric collage

Saul Mshikiza led a peaceful protest against the forced removal of his community and was shot dead. The policeman who killed him returned the next day, mounted Mshikiza's horse, and rode around Saul Mshikiza's family home.

EXHIBITION DETAILS

Brixton Art Gallery, 21 Atlantic Road, London S.W.9.

Telephone: (01) 733 7757

Exhibition: 24 May - 14 June, open 11 am - 6 pm Monday - Saturday.

Opening: 23 May at 7 pm for 7.15 pm opening speech.

Workshop programme: Tuesday and Thursday afternoons 1.30 pm - 4.30 pm.

'Patchwork Pictures' by the Zamanis, 27 May.

'Sashiko Quilting' by Rosemary Muntus, 29 May.

'Basic Patchwork' by the Zamanis, 3 June.

'Reverse Appliqué' by Deidre Amsden, 5 June.

'African Headresses' by the Zamanis, 10 June.

'Colour in Patchwork' by Dawn Pavit, 12 June.

Welcome to Cuesta Benberry: Sunday 8 June at 3 pm.

Evening Events:

'Poetry Performance' presented by Harmony Theatre,
Wednesday 28 May at 7.30 pm.

'Teatro Travesura' Chilean patchwork puppet show for all ages,

'The Tomato and the Condor' Friday 6 June at 7.15 pm.

'Afro-American Women and Quilts' illustrated lecture by Cuesta Benberry, Thursday 12 June at 7 pm. The Assembly Rooms,
Brixton Town Hall, Acre lane, London S.W.9.

Film: 'Awake from Mourning' showings during the exhibition.

Exhibition Organiser: Teri Bullen, Brixton Artists Collective.

Financial Assistance: The Crafts Council for Workshop programme, and